

NEXTGEN EVOLUTION

The Leader of the Future

2021 WILL BE CHALLENGING. A NEW WORLD TO NAVIGATE AS A LEADER. ARE YOU READY?

In today's virtual business landscape, leaders feel more isolated than ever! Entrepreneurs, small business owners, and growing executives all need space to grow and learn to be better leaders. Join our community of Green and Growing leaders that want to take it to the next level, be equipped to grow your company, and have the tools to grow personally.

TEAMS ARE THE KEY TO GROWING A BUSINESS

This program is not just for business owners, it is for your key executives that you are looking to grow. When the time comes to think about selling your business remember, businesses that run independent of their owners have more value to the buyer than owner-dependent companies. Build a team that can run without you.

A COLLABORATION OF WHAT WORKS AND WHAT'S NEXT

In addition to the basic fundamentals of leadership, NextGen Evolution leaders are intrinsically social, and socially conscious. This program identifies the missing skills evolving leaders need—while appealing to their natural openness and agile minds. NextGen Evolution prepares them for success in a dynamic workplace.

NEXTGEN
LEADER WILL

- Complex decision-making skills
- Superior communication skills
- Deeper understanding of business finances
- Effective leadership skills
- Enhanced personal accountability

Cultivating the Complete Leader

To bring out the best in NextGen leaders, we teach:

- Self-Perception: Participants will use proven personality and EQ assessments to better know themselves, and better understand how their unique beliefs impact their relationships—both in and out of the workplace.
- Execution: They will learn the art of successful execution through goal setting, measuring progress, and accountability.
- Enriching Enterprise Value: They will develop a deep understanding of your organization's economic challenges, then learn how to leverage Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) into extraordinary financial results.
- World and Workplace: They will step out of their comfort zones, embrace changing culture and perspectives, and hone their ability to identify the next big thing, giving your organization a global, future-forward focus.

TESTIMONIALS

"The cumulative years of experience, information and practical knowledge, all in one package, have made a huge difference in my leadership capabilities!"

– Nick Riell, B.Sc., FMT, MAT, Fitness Manager, Corporate Performance LLC, ZEROlevel Fitness and Wellness

"The program is a focused experience for executives that ties together education, experience and emotional intelligence. I have three executives in the program, because I believe that balance is the greatest gift for the future of my company and legacy."

– Guy Wells, President/CEO, Wells Cargo

Executive leadership coach, business consultant and speaker, Wendy Luttrell knows you can't plot a course without a clearly defined destination. That's why she's passionate about helping leaders get to the heart of what they want to achieve. Wendy knows how isolating and anxiety-ridden running a business can be because she's done it. She worked her way up from receptionist to the C-suite and took BedHead Pajamas from $4M - $12M and sold it profitably. What was the secret to her success? Clear goals, a plan of action and, of course, a lot of hustle.

Wendy combines her experience as a leader, compassion and proven set of practical tools with good old fashion accountability to help her clients forge a path towards more balance and professional and personal success. Not only has she built a successful coaching business, but she has also created a thriving community to support business leaders through her Leaders Lifting Leaders and now through NextGen Evolution groups.

Wendy brings experience, know-how and accountability to train the next leaders in any organization. She will support your growth and help you become the leader you deserve to be.
